1. In his letter to the District Magistrate Mr K Seshagiri Rao, City Magistrate Bangalore city, has represented that the Court of the City Magistrate is the heaviest in Bangalore city and that he has always to work overtime in order to get through the work. He has stated that he was found it quite essential that he should keep a dependable car to go at call at the time of large gatherings, to visit the hospitals to record statements etc. He has further stated that inspite of this heavy work and responsibility he has been given no duty or conveyance allowance whereas Assistant Commissioners working in the Secretariat, Comptroller's Office Food and Income Tax Depts are in receipt of allowances, and has requested that the Assistant Commissioners working as City Magistrates, Bangalore city may be given a duty allowance of Rs 50/- and a conveyance allowance of Rs 60/- with effect from 1-7-1947.

6 The file No 118-43-1 dated 23-12-1943 regarding grant of a duty allowance of Rs 50/- p.m. to the Asst Comrs posted as Asst Secretaries to Govt or Under Secretaries to Govt or as Assistants to the Heads of Depts in Bangalore and the file No. CB. 175-44- relating to the grant of a duty allowance of Rs 50/- p.m. to the Special Magistrate K G F are put up herewith.

10/12 7 Mr K. Sheshagiri Rao who is now holding the post of city Magistrate, Bangalore is an officer belonging to the civil service. In G.O. No. 2197-255/ C.B. 118-43-1 dated 23rd December 1943 Asst Comrs posted as Asst or Under Secretaries to Govt or as Asste to the Heads of Depts at Bangalore were granted a duty allowance of Rs 50/- pm The circumstances leading this are explained in Subn note dated 13th Dec. 1943 The reasons adduced in support of it are that the conditions of life particularly in Bangalore have become harder and the work to be attended to by the Secretariat and other Head-quarter officers has become more strenuous exacting and responsible that some officers who are stationed in Bangalore have been granted allowances and that unlike Asst Comrs in charge of Subdns and Treasuries, officers drafted to the Secretariat have to incur extra expenses by reason of having to live in the city.

"B"

"C"

7 Subsequently some representations were made by Asst comrs working in Bangalore including Mr B.S. Suryanarayana, Asst comr doing duty as Second Magistrate, Bangalore requesting that the concession contemplated might be extended to them in the G.O. order dated 23rd Dec. 1943. But their request was not complied with (vide discussions in CS. file no. 118-43 (4-6, 10 & 11) "D"

8 Of the Asst comrs holding the appointment of Magistrates none is in receipt any allowance except the Second Magistrate Bangalore and the Spl. Magistrate, K.G.F. The former was granted a consolidated allowance of Rs 50/- pm in connection with the holding of a Court near the Hindustan Air craft Factory As regards the grant of an allowance of Rs 50/- pm to the Spl. Magistrate, K.G.F. Kind reference is invited to the Secretariat Note dated 1st Dec. 1944. The Spl Magistrate, K.G.F. besides being a Magistrate "E"

(i) is the Vice-President of the Sanitary Board
(ii) Income-tax officer
(iii) Asst to the comr for Workmens Compensation
(iv) Rationing of Petrol tyre and food

10 ~~Disappointed~~ The City Magistrate, Bangalore has not been entrusted with any extra duties just as in the case of the two Magistrates referred to above

Allowance to the city Magistrate, Bangalore 1605 C-B

It is therefore a point for consideration whether the duties of the city Magistrate Bangalore and of the Spl Magistrate, K & F are similar and whether the grant of duty allowance is called for in this case.

~~If the Commissioner has proposed to grant a consolidated allowance to city Magistrate, Bgre.~~ It is also submitted that, in case this concession is shown to the city Magistrate, the Asst Comrs holding the appointment of Magistrates may put up a claim for this allowance

2. The proposal to grant allowance to the city Magistrate, is for orders

Fin Secy may also be consulted

13. Similar requests from Asst Comrs working as Magistrate in Bangalore city for a Duty Allowance have not been complied with No Conveyance allowance is also being given to other Magistrates working in Bangalore city

14. The proposal to grant a Consolidated Allowance of Rs. 50/- to the City Magistrate Bangalore has perhaps to be rejected

Chief Secy) 15/12/47

15. The request is not tenable & may be rejected

Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith a copy of D.O.letter D/22-9-47 ~~axxxxxxxx~~ received from Mr.K.Seshagiri Rao,City Magistrate,Bangalore City, requesting for the grant of a duty allowance of Rs.50/- and a Conveyance Allowance ~~Allowance~~ of Rs. 60/- with effect from 1/7/47, in favour of Asstant commissoners working as City Magistrates, Bangalore City, on account of the facts that the City Magistrate has to over work to cope with the heavy work of the Court and also maintain a conveyance to attend to the emergent calls in the maintenance of peace and order to visit hospitals for recording statements etc. In this connection it may be mentioned that officers of the Food Dept, Income Tax Dept, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Comptrollers of the rank of Assistant Commissioners serving in the City are in receipt of an allowance, of Rs.50/- P.M. I, therefore, recommend that a consolidated allowance of Rs.50/- P.M. may be recommended for sanction to the Assistant Commissioners posted as City Magistrate,Bangalore.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

[illegible]

Deputy Commissioner,
Bangalore District.

K.Seshagiri Rao,M.A.LL.B.,
City Magistrate.

Bangalore City.
22/9/1947.

Dear Sir,

You are aware that this Court is perhaps the heaviest in Bangalore City. The Magistrate has always to work overtime in order to get through the work. I have rarely been able to finish my Court work before 6-30 or 7 P.M. daily since I took charge. I am also working on several of the holidays.

Secondly as I City Magistrate I have found it quite essential that I should keep a dependable car to meet emergent calls at the time of large gatherings, to visit the hospitals to record statements etc. As you are kindly aware, during the recent disturbances, I have been moving about all over the City for weeks at a stretch. Keeping a car involves heavy expenses.

The City Magistrate notwithstanding this heavy work and responsibility gets no manner of duty or conveyance allow-allowances. Officers of the Food Dept.Income Tax Asst.Comrs as Secretaries, Asst.Comptrollers and many other Officers of the rank of Asst.Comrs.serving in the City are in receipt of allowances.

I request that you may be so kind as to recommend a Duty Allowance of Rs.50/- and a Conveyance ~~Allowance~~ of Rs.60/- with effect from 1-7-47 in favour of Assistant Commissioners working as City Magistrates, Bangalore City.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,
Sd/K.Seshagiri Rao,
